During a September 2016 meeting of the ASNMSU President, ASNMSU Fiscal Advisor (NMSU Business Manager, I), ASNMSU Advisor, the NMSU Vice President of Student Affairs and Enrollment Management, the NMSU Dean of Students, NMSU Business Manager, III, and the NMSU Assistant Vice President of Human Resources, it was established that ASNMSU employees who routinely worked more than the standard 20 hours a week needed to be properly compensated for the extra hours of work, as established by the Fair Labor Standards Act and regulated by the United States Department of Labor. In order to comply with federal, state and university regulations, the ASNMSU Vice President, whose duties regularly require the incumbent to work more than 20 hours, required legislation supplementing their compensation to include potential pay for an additional work period not to exceed 10 hours (30 total) per week.
