30 Section 4: Rationale.

31

Rosario Tapia, an esteemed member of the Early Childhood Education program at New Mexico State

32

University was chosen by their department to present at this conference and meet and network with some of the most well-known members of the field of early childhood education. While presenting at this conference they will learn plenty about Early Childhood Education and use what they learned while practicing within the field. They will also be representing New Mexico State University just by presenting at this very prestigious conference.

33

34

35

36
