1. THE CONSTITUTION OF THE ASNMSU

1-1. NAME

The name of this student association shall be "The Associated Students of New Mexico State University," hereafter referred to as the "ASNMSU."

1-2. MEMBERSHIP, STRUCTURE, AND LIMITATION OF POWER

1-2-1. MEMBERSHIP

All students of NMSU who have paid the ASNMSU supporting fees shall be members of the ASNMSU.

1-2-2. GOVERNMENTAL STRUCTURE

The governing structure of the ASNMSU shall consist of three branches: the legislative, the executive, and the judicial.

1-2-3. LIMITATION OF POWER

The ASNMSU shall not have the power to enact any bylaw or adopt any policy which infringes upon the rights of any policy-determining body of NMSU to perform their duties and responsibilities.

1-3. LEGISLATIVE

1-3-1. LEGISLATIVE POWER VESTED

All legislative powers granted in this Constitution shall be vested in the Senate of the ASNMSU, hereafter referred to as the "Senate."

1-3-2. SENATE MEMBERSHIP QUALIFICATIONS AND OFFICERS

The Senate of the ASNMSU shall be composed of Senators of the ASNMSU elected by the ASNMSU members of the university's Undergraduate Colleges and the Graduate School, hereafter referred to collectively as the "Colleges." Senators of the ASNMSU shall be elected for a term of one (1) year and shall take office at the last Senate of the ASNMSU meeting of the semester of their election. No person shall be a Senator of the ASNMSU who is not, when elected and while in office, a member of the ASNMSU, not under academic or disciplinary probation, and a student of the College by which they are elected. No Senator of the ASNMSU shall hold an additional elected office or appointed position of the ASNMSU except as may be provided through the bylaws. No person shall be a Senator of the ASNMSU if they are enrolled in a recurring class scheduled to overlap for up to more than 90 minutes from the start time of a regularly scheduled Senate meeting and assigned committee meetings. The members of the Senate of the ASNMSU shall be apportioned among the several Colleges in direct proportion to their respective enrollments as determined by the current official fall semester enrollment figures from the NMSU registrar, but each College shall have at least two (2) Senators of the ASNMSU. Amendments to the apportionment shall be passed by a vote of three-fourths of the Senate of the ASNMSU membership present and voting. When a vacancy occurs in the Senate of the ASNMSU, the College Council of the College of the vacated position may select an interim Senator of the ASNMSU to serve the remainder of the unexpired term. The Vice President of the ASNMSU shall be President of the Senate of the ASNMSU but shall have no vote unless the Senate of the ASNMSU is equally divided. The Senate of the ASNMSU shall choose its other officers and a President Pro Tempore of the ASNMSU who shall serve in the absence of the Vice President of the ASNMSU or when the Vice President of the ASNMSU shall exercise the Office of President of the ASNMSU.

1-3-3. POWERS AND DUTIES

The Senate of the ASNMSU shall have the authority to pass all legislation necessary and consequent to any provision of this Constitution. No money shall be drawn from the treasury except as a consequence of appropriations made through the bylaws. The Senate of the ASNMSU may levy such fees as may be necessary to support the ASNMSU upon the consent of the ASNMSU. The Senate of the ASNMSU shall have the sole power to initiate impeachment proceedings against any individual holding a position of trust and confidence under the ASNMSU on allegation of nonfeasance or misfeasance by a three-quarters majority vote of those present and voting. The Senate of the ASNMSU shall have the sole power to try any member of the judiciary in matters of alleged nonfeasance, misfeasance, and, if guilt is found by a three-quarters majority vote of those present and voting, to remove such a person from office. The times, places, and manner of holding elections for Senators and Executive Officers of the ASNMSU shall be prescribed by the Senate of the ASNMSU. The Senate of the ASNMSU shall be the judge of the elections, returns, and qualifications of all elected officials of the ASNMSU and may delegate these duties as prescribed through the bylaws.

1-3-4. ENACTMENT AND VETO OF BILLS

Every bill having passed the Senate of the ASNMSU shall be presented to the President of the ASNMSU before being enacted into bylaw. If the President of the ASNMSU approves, the bill shall be enacted by the President of the ASNMSU 's signature. If the President of the ASNMSU disapproves, the President of the ASNMSU shall return the bill with a written message of objections to the Senate of the ASNMSU. The Senate of the ASNMSU may then reconsider the bill; should two-thirds majority of the Senators of the ASNMSU present vote in the affirmative upon the bill, it shall be enacted into bylaw. Should the President of the ASNMSU fail to return a bill to the Senate of the ASNMSU within two weeks after it has been presented, the bill shall be enacted into bylaw as though the President of the ASNMSU had signed it, provided the Senate of the ASNMSU shall not have prevented its return by its adjournment. All bills shall be transmitted to the Office of the President of NMSU and the Office of the Vice President of Student Success of NMSU within forty-eight hours of enactment into bylaw. The President of NMSU or designee shall have the power to nullify the annual general appropriations bill within two weeks after it has been presented to them.

1-3-5. MEETINGS AND RULES OF PROCEEDINGS

The Senate of the ASNMSU shall convene no less than once every two weeks during the fall and spring semesters. A regular meeting may be omitted by a two-thirds majority vote of the Senate of the ASNMSU. A majority of the membership shall constitute a quorum to transact business, but a smaller number may adjourn and may compel, upon peril of censure, the attendance of absent members. The Senate Clerk of the ASNMSU shall keep a journal of the proceedings of all meetings in which the affirmative and negative votes shall be entered upon any document or matter of record. The meeting proceedings shall be made available to the public. The Senate of the ASNMSU may determine the rules of its proceedings. All meetings of the Senate of the ASNMSU, whether the body is sitting in whole or in part, shall be open to the public, except as otherwise provided by within the laws. All persons in attendance shall be subject to the rules of the Senate of the ASNMSU.

1-4. EXECUTIVE

1-4-1. EXECUTIVE POWER AND ELECTION

The executive power shall be vested in the President of the ASNMSU, who shall enforce the execution of all bylaws and policies of the ASNMSU not explicitly required of the other branches. A President and Vice President of the ASNMSU shall be elected by a majority vote of active ASNMSU members casting ballots in an election during the spring semester of each academic year. No person shall be a candidate for executive office who has not been a member of the ASNMSU for the spring and fall semesters of the academic year prior to candidacy. No person under academic or disciplinary probation or who is not a member of the ASNMSU shall hold an executive office. Each elected Executive Officer shall serve a term of one year commencing on May 16th and terminating with the successor's installation.

1-4-2. ORDER OF SUCCESSION

In such event that the President of the ASNMSU resigns from their office, be removed from their office, or in some other manner be rendered unable to fulfill the duties and discharge the powers of office, all powers, authorities, responsibilities, and duties of the Office of the President of the ASNMSU shall fall upon the Vice President of the ASNMSU. In the event that such disability be removed, all powers, authorities, responsibilities, and duties of the Office of the President of the ASNMSU shall revert to the President of the ASNMSU upon their declaration of fitness to serve. The Senate of the ASNMSU may, through the bylaws, provide for the order of succession of executive responsibility in the event that both the President of the ASNMSU and Vice President of the ASNMSU suffer disability or, in some manner, become incapacitated.

1-4-3. INFORMATION TO BE PROVIDED TO THE SENATE

From time to time, the President of the ASNMSU shall give the Senate of the ASNMSU information on the state of the ASNMSU and recommend measures they judge necessary and expedient.

1-4-4. APPOINTIVE POWERS

The President of the ASNMSU shall nominate and, with the consent of the Senate, shall appoint members of the ASNMSU to fill executive offices which may be established through the bylaws. The Senate of the ASNMSU may, through the bylaws, invest the President of the ASNMSU with the power to make specified appointments at their sole discretion. The President of the ASNMSU shall have the authority to appoint such executive assistants as deemed necessary.

1-5. JUDICIAL

1-5-1. SUPREME AND INFERIOR COURTS

The judicial power of the ASNMSU shall be vested in the Supreme Court and inferior Courts of the ASNMSU ordained and established by the Senate of the ASNMSU. The Supreme Court of the ASNMSU shall comprise of one (1) Chief Justice of the ASNMSU and four (4) Associate Justices of the ASNMSU nominated by the President of the ASNMSU and confirmed by the Senate of the ASNMSU. The four (4) Associate Justices of the ASNMSU shall be nominated with the consent of the Chief Justice of the ASNMSU. All Justices of the ASNMSU shall be members of the ASNMSU, and no person shall be nominated or appointed a justice of the Supreme Court of the ASNMSU who has not been a member of the ASNMSU for the spring or fall semester prior to their appointment. The Chief Justice and two (2) Associate Justices of the ASNMSU shall be nominated by the outgoing President of the ASNMSU and confirmed at the spring semester's last Senate of the ASNMSU meeting. The term of the remaining two (2) Associate Justices of the ASNMSU shall be confirmed at the last Senate of the ASNMSU meeting of the fall semester. All the Supreme Court Justices of the ASNMSU shall serve a one (1) year term. When a vacancy occurs within the Supreme Court of the ASNMSU, the President of the ASNMSU, with the consent of the Senate of the ASNMSU, shall appoint a qualified member of the ASNMSU to fill the remainder of the unexpired term. A majority of the Justices of the ASNMSU shall constitute a quorum to render a decision.

1-5-2. JUDICIAL POWER

The judicial power shall extend to all cases, in bylaw and equity, arising under this Constitution, statutory enactments, legislative resolutions, or executive orders of the ASNMSU. Both the Supreme Court and inferior Courts of the ASNMSU shall have the power to render decisions in matters of binding arbitration when both parties to such a dispute so request and submit to the jurisdiction over any case originally adjudicated by any inferior Court of the ASNMSU. The Supreme Court of the ASNMSU shall have the sole power to try impeachments of Legislative and Executive Officers. This power shall extend no further than the judgment of removal from office.

1-6. THE LAW BOOKS

All contents in the Law Books of the ASNMSU shall henceforth be considered the bylaw of the ASNMSU.

1-6-1. CERTIFICATION

The Law Book of the ASNMSU shall be certified in accordance with NMSU Policy and Procedures at the beginning of every fiscal year by the NMSU Vice President of Student Success. Should the contents of the Law Book of the ASNMSU fail to be certified at any point, all employees of the ASNMSU shall cease all operations. Exempt employees shall include:

- A. The Advisors of the ASNMSU; and
- B. Any full-time employees of the ASNMSU; and
- C. Employees of the ASNMSU that are considered essential by the Advisors of the ASNMSU and confirmed by the passing of a simple resolution.

The Senate of the ASNMSU shall then have the sole power to review and amend the Law Book of the ASNMSU to meet NMSU Policy and Procedure, and they will only be able to pass legislation concerning the Law Book of the ASNMSU until certification is completed.

1-7. AMENDMENTS

Amendments to this Constitution shall be passed by a two-thirds majority vote of the Senate of the ASNMSU membership, approved by a majority of those members of the ASNMSU voting for that purpose, and approved by the President of NMSU or their designee before such amendments shall become effective.

2. THE ELECTION CODE

2-1. CONSTITUTIONAL AUTHORITY

In accordance with the ASNMSU Constitution, enacting an election code and prescribing the manner in which elections shall be conducted.

2-2. PURPOSE OF ELECTION CODE

The purpose of the ASNMSU Election Code is to secure both the secrecy of the ballot and the purity of elections, to guard against the abuse of the elective franchise, and to provide for efficient administration and conduct of elections.

2-2-1. DEFINITIONS

As used in the Election Code, the following are defined:

- A. "Voter" means any student of NMSU who is a member of the ASNMSU and is eligible to vote in an ASNMSU election; and

  12. Social Media & List Serve Form; and
  13. Official Violation Form; and
  14. ASNMSU Code of Ethics; and
  15. An official campaign team list that will clearly define who is campaigning for an official candidate on their behalf and must provide written consent to the Chief Election Officer; and
  16. Any other document deemed necessary at the discretion of the ASNMSU Chief Elections Officer.
- C. Run-off elections shall be held one (1) week immediately after the election for which they are required:
1. If the date for the run-off election is inappropriate, the ASNMSU Election Board shall set a new date, which must be as close to the original date as possible.
- D. At least four (4) calendar weeks prior to the general election, the ASNMSU Chief Elections Officer, in conjunction with the ASNMSU Election Board, shall give notice of the following:
1. The Election; and
  2. Any offices to be voted for; and
  3. Any constitutional or special referendum or other questions to be voted for; and
  4. The requirements for any office at stake; and
  5. Including the application process for selecting ASNMSU Election Board Members; and
  6. Voting instructions and locations.

The same information shall be released regarding any run-off elections within twenty-four (24) hours after the run-off election is deemed necessary.

E. Elections should commence at least five (5) weeks before the last day of the semester.

2-4-1. NOTICE OF CONSTITUTIONAL OR SPECIAL REFERENDUMS AND OTHER QUESTIONS

- A. The ASNMSU Election Board shall publish in the student media the full text of any proposed amendments or questions at least four (4) calendar weeks prior to the start of the general election at which they are to be considered. Copies of the amendments or questions must be made available to any ASNMSU member who requests one:
1. All questions are to be posed during a general election.
- B. In order for a special referendum or other question to appear on the ballot for an election:
1. It must be passed by the ASNMSU Senate in the form of a resolution at least four (4) calendar weeks before the election and be in accordance with all other ASNMSU bylaws; or
  2. A petition must be signed by at least ten percent (10%) of fee-paying members of the ASNMSU and submitted to the ASNMSU Chief Elections Officer no later than four (4) calendar weeks prior to the election.
- C. In accordance with the ASNMSU Constitution, resolutions concerning constitutional referendums must be passed by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the ASNMSU members.

2-5. OFFICIAL CANDIDACY

For a candidate's name to be printed on the ballot, they shall file with the ASNMSU office an affidavit petition of candidacy acknowledging candidacy for office no later than two (2) calendar weeks prior to the general election. They must be declared an official candidate by the ASNMSU Election Board in accordance with Section 1-4-1 of the ASNMSU Constitution:

- A. Each ASNMSU Senate candidate must be enrolled in the College in which they are seeking election:
1. The College must be listed as the candidate's primary College at the time of the election. The NMSU Registrar's Office will determine this.
- B. Candidates for ASNMSU President and Vice President may be enrolled in any College; and
- C. On the affidavit, each candidate shall print or type their:
1. Full name; and
  2. Address; and

- A. A sitting ASNMSU Supreme Court Chief Justice or Associate Justice shall not run for any ASNMSU office or campaign for any ASNMSU candidate before resigning from the current position:
  1. Participation in any general election may be allowed after submitting a resignation letter.
- B. Official ASNMSU members currently in an elected or appointed position may seek a different office within the ASNMSU during an official election:
  1. Upon being elected, the individual must submit a resignation letter effective upon assuming the elected office to his or her superior terminating the current position.

2-5-4. POSITIONS AVAILABLE AND TERM LIMITS

A. Senate Seat Apportionment Equation: seats will be allocated to colleges based on adjusted representation, calculated as follows:

1. Adjusted Representation Calculation:

Adjusted representation is determined by dividing the total enrollment of each individual college by the total student enrollment, then multiplying by 30. The result is rounded to the nearest whole number to determine the adjusted representation for each college.

$$\frac{\text{NMSU University Enrollment total}}{\text{ASNMSU College Enrollment total}} \times 30$$

2. Assignment of Additional Seats:

If the total number of seats assigned is less than the total available, additional seats will be allocated to the college with the lowest excess or deficit representation. This is calculated by subtracting the calculated representation from the adjusted representation.

a. Excess/Deficit Calculation:

Adjusted representation – calculated representation = Excess/Deficit representation number

b. Process for Assigning Additional Seats:

Additional seats will be assigned iteratively. Starting with the college having the lowest deficit. The process repeats with updated calculations, after each new seat is added, until all seats are allocated.

B. The seats of the ASNMSU Senate shall be numbered as follows:

1. ACES ----- 1, 17, 23;

2. ARTS & SCIENCES ----- 2, 7, 12, 15, 16, 18, 24, 28, 30;

3. BUSINESS ----- 3, 8, 25;

5. GRADUATE ----- 5, 10, 21, 27, 29;

6. HEALTH, EDUCATION & SOCIAL TRANSFORMATION ----- 6, 11, 13, 14, 19, 22;

C. All seats numbered one through fifteen (1-15), inclusively, shall be elected in the fall semester and serve a term of one (1) year; and

- D. All seats numbered sixteen through thirty (16-30), inclusively, shall be elected in the spring semester and serve a term of one (1) year; and
- E. Seat changes shall be made based on the actual fall enrollment figures from the previous semester:
  - 1. No College shall have less than two (2) ASNMSU Senate seats at any given time and shall be determined annually by the ASNMSU Attorney General; and
  - 2. The ASNMSU Senate Rules Committee shall be responsible for drafting and proposing legislation to make any needed changes.

2-6. POLLING STATIONS

2-6-1. DESIGNATION OF POLLING PLACES

- A. The following will be considered the minimum number of polling stations for a fair and accurate election:
  - 1. There will be one (1) polling station located at the Corbett Center Student Union;
  - 2. There will be at least two (2) other physical polling stations.
- B. At the discretion of the ASNMSU Election Board, more physical polling station locations may be added; and
- C. Any electronic device with access to the internet that the ASNMSU Chief Elections Officer has approved shall be considered polling places and fall under the jurisdiction of the Election Code; and
- D. With internet voting, temporary voting locations are considered official polling places when an internet-accessible device is set up, accessible by the general student population, and used as a public poll. It will be necessary to mark the temporary location's boundaries in order to prevent campaigning within the polling place. The exact boundaries of the polling places shall be a twenty (20) foot radius around the poll, except for designated bulletin boards; and
- E. No person shall campaign or post any campaign material within twenty (20) feet of a computer lab. Any room with three (3) or more publicly accessible computers shall be considered a computer lab:
  - 1. Campaigning in a computer lab shall be allowed at the discretion of the ASNMSU Chief Elections Officer. Candidates shall be made aware of such computer labs, where campaigning shall be allowed, at least one (1) week prior to the campaign week.

2-6-2. RULES ON TEMPORARY VOTING SITES

- A. Candidates who request temporary or additional internet voting sites for an ASNMSU election shall make a request to the ASNMSU Chief Elections Officer, who will then decide if an additional site is needed or required; and
- B. No candidates may set up temporary or additional internet voting sites themselves but must make the request to the ASNMSU Chief Elections Officer for handling to ensure impartial officials handle the site; and

- C. No party shall set up temporary or additional voting sites without the direct consent of the ASNMSU Chief Elections Officer for voting in the ASNMSU elections; and
- D. No candidates may use a wireless-capable device in a wireless-capable area to induce, abet, or procure votes for themselves; and
- E. Candidates requesting the setup of wireless capable devices or the use of wireless capable devices inside a wireless capable area for the use of the general student population in voting in the ASNMSU elections may not do so themselves but must make a request of the ASNMSU Chief Elections Officer for setup; and
- F. Candidates are not allowed to be involved in the use or administration of additional or temporary internet voting sites; and
- G. Candidates are not allowed to personally use or administer the use of wireless capable devices in wireless capable areas for the general student population's use for voting in the ASNMSU elections; and
- H. Areas with campaign materials set up can only be used as temporary or additional areas for the setup of devices used for voting in the ASNMSU elections by the general student population once all campaign materials have been cleared.

2-6-3. OPENING AND CLOSING OF POLLS

- A. With internet voting, the link to the poll shall be open for voting twenty-four (24) hours per day during the duration of the election; and
- B. All polling stations must open starting at 8:00 am on the first day of elections and ending at 5:00 pm on the last day:
  - 1. The election shall begin on a weekday and last a minimum of five (5) days; and
  - 2. The last day of voting must end on a weekday.

2-6-4. POLL WORKERS

The ASNMSU Chief Elections Officer shall appoint poll workers to observe that the election is being conducted in accordance with the Election Code:

- A. All ASNMSU Election Board members shall be poll workers; and
- B. At least two (2) poll workers will be appointed for each polling station; and
- C. The poll workers will be entrusted with the designated mobile devices used for internet voting; and
- D. Every ASNMSU employee, elected official, and intern shall be eligible to be appointed as an official poll worker unless running for a position; and

- E. If any poll worker fails to attend the appointed poll at the specified time, the ASNMSU Chief Elections Officer shall appoint a qualified person to fill the vacancy; and
- F. Poll workers shall submit in writing to the ASNMSU Chief Elections Officer any violation of the Election Code using the violation forms; and
- G. Poll workers shall be allowed to assist ASNMSU members who find it hard to vote independently.

2-7. CAMPAIGN RULES

In campaigning, the following campaign rules shall be observed and enforced.

2-7-1. GENERAL RULES

- A. No person shall campaign, post any campaign material, or in any other way attempt to induce any voter for any person or question within the polling place:

- C. Campaigning shall begin no earlier than two (2) weeks before the start of the ASNMSU general election date in which they are running:

1. Petitioners are allowed to inform individual students from whom they are seeking signatures as to why that student should sign their election petition. However, it is illegal for candidates to use the term “vote”.
- D. Placement of campaign materials on campus shall abide by all NMSU rules and regulations; and
- E. Candidates for the offices of ASNMSU Senate, Vice President, and President shall be allowed to campaign by utilizing electronic sources, including:
1. List serves; and
  2. Online forums; and
  3. Public websites.
- F. Candidates are responsible for being granted access to specific list serves by the appropriate individual(s) responsible for the list serve; and
- G. Candidates shall be allowed to utilize online forums, including social media websites; and
- H. No person shall be denied entrance into a candidates’ online forum or online community; and
- I. Candidates shall be responsible for any electronic material which bears their name that is enacted by the candidate’s official campaign workers or by the consent of the candidate or the candidate themselves; and
- J. No person shall destroy or deface posters, pamphlets, or other campaign material; and
- K. No person shall disrupt or prevent the legal and orderly campaign of any person; and
- L. The candidate shall be responsible for the actions of the candidate's official campaign workers as those actions relate to the conduct of the election; and
- M. No candidate shall be allowed the use of any ASNMSU resources for an election campaign or petition for candidacy; and
- N. Regarding the use of chalk:
1. Use of chalk shall not be allowed within ten (10) feet of the entrance of any building on the NMSU campus; and
  2. Use of chalk shall not be allowed within twenty-five (25) feet of the entrances of the Corbett Center Student Union; and
  3. Use of chalk shall be restricted to concrete walkways; and
  4. All chalk used must be of a temporary or removable nature. Permanent chalk, such as surveyor's chalk, shall not be used.

O. Candidates for the Office of ASNMSU Senator, Vice President, and President shall be permitted to campaign together, and the following shall be considered legal instances of coordination when carried out by candidates:

1. Posting of campaign materials, social media activity, or list serves that advocate for more than one candidate; and
2. Petitioners are allowed to inform individual student organizations and College Councils from whom they are seeking endorsement meetings of their candidacy and request to meet with them any time prior to election week; and
3. Any sharing of budgets or splitting of costs for resources between candidates.

P. It is unlawful for anyone to:

1. Vote or offer to vote in the name of any other person; or
2. Vote or offer to vote with the knowledge of not being a qualified voter; or
3. Vote or offer to vote more than once in the election; or
4. Induce, abet, or procure a person known not to be a qualified voter to vote; or
5. Induce, abet, or procure a person who has voted previously in an election to vote again; or
6. Fraudulently deceive or mislead any voter or election official; or
7. Pay or cause to be paid directly or indirectly, any money or other valuable consideration to any student to induce any student to vote or to refrain from voting; or
8. Pay or cause to be paid, directly or indirectly, any money or other valuable consideration to any person to induce any election official to violate the Election Code, or to mark, alter, suppress, or otherwise change any ballot that has been cast, any election returns or other election documents; or
9. Accept a bribe; or
10. Induce or attempt to induce fear in any student, election official, or voter by threats of any sort; or
11. Obtain election results prior to online polls closing except for the ASNMSU Chief Elections Officer, appropriate advisors, and technical support; or
12. Intimidate voters, examples include:
  - a. Threats or Coercion: engaging in any form of verbal or physical intimidation, including but not limited to, making threats, taking a student's voting device and voting on their behalf, actively watching voters submit their ballot, or exerting any undue pressure on voters to influence their choices; and

- b. Dissemination of False Information: spreading misleading or false information about the election process, candidates, or candidate/voter eligibility with the intention of confusing or dissuading voters from participating; and
- c. Obstruction of Access: deliberately impeding or obstructing voters' access to polling places, such as blocking entrances, disrupting the voting process, or engaging in any activities that hinder voters from exercising their right to vote; and
- d. Discrimination or Harassment: engaging in discriminatory practices or harassment based on race, ethnicity, gender, religion, disability, or any other protected characteristic, which creates a hostile environment and inhibits voters from freely expressing their choices; and
- e. Coercive Influence: attempting to unduly influence voters through bribery, promises of personal gain, or any form of exchange that compromises the integrity of the voting process.

Q. All candidates shall submit the following:

- 1. The List Serve Form by five (5:00) p.m. on the final day of voting; and

2-7-2. FINANCIAL RULES

- A. Total campaign expenditure limits for each candidate for the general election shall not exceed the following:
  - 1. Five hundred dollars ($500) for ASNMSU Senators; or
  - 2. One thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500) for ASNMSU President and Vice President; or
  - 3. Candidates for other elected offices shall be limited as an ASNMSU Senator with respect to campaign expenditures.
- B. Any electronic campaign material purchased must be included in the total campaign expenditure; and

- C. All official candidates shall submit a statement of campaign expenditures to the ASNMSU Election Board before the closing of the polls at 5:00 pm on the last day of the election:
  - 1. All expenses, along with the donation of goods and services, must be declared in the statement; and
  - 2. Receipts must accompany expenses; and
  - 3. Donations of goods and services must be accompanied by a letter from the donor showing the fair market value of the donation; and
  - 4. In the event no expenses are incurred, an expense report shall be submitted, which will reflect no expenditure:
    - a. Write-in candidates shall be informed in the timeliest manner possible by the ASNMSU Chief Elections Officer that they must turn in a statement of campaign expenditures.
  - 5. The write-in candidate shall have twenty-four (24) hours after notification to comply with these requirements.
- D. Candidates who fail to submit their statement of campaign expenditures within the required time limit shall be disqualified at the discretion of the ASNMSU Election Board; and
- E. Candidates declaring campaign expenditures and donations at less than a reasonable value shall be disqualified at the discretion of the ASNMSU Election Board; and
- F. Candidates shall have the right to a hearing with the ASNMSU Election Board prior to disqualification and the right to appeal the disqualification to the ASNMSU Supreme Court.

2-8. CAMPAIGN VIOLATIONS

If someone, during the time of campaigning and elections, has written a violation against a candidate, the following steps will be taken.

2-8-1. VIOLATION PROCESS

- A. All violations must be submitted by the Friday of elections week at 5:00 pm to the ASNMSU Chief Elections Officer in the Office of the ASNMSU or online as outlined by the Official Electronic Violation Filing Form instructions:
  - 1. The ASNMSU Election Board will consider violations on a schedule the ASNMSU Chief Elections Officer determines during campaigning and elections weeks.
- B. If someone has filed a violation against a candidate, the person submitting such violation:
  - 1. Will be allowed to speak about their reasoning for filing the alleged violation:
    - a. Before the meeting, they will be given at least a twenty-four (24) hour notice via email.
  - 2. May request to stay anonymous and not appear before the ASNMSU Election Board; and

3. Meetings about a filed violation form can be done solely through the ASNMSU Chief Elections Officer and other ASNMSU members as deemed necessary, including the ASNMSU Attorney General, Deputy Attorney General, and Deputy Elections Officer:
    - a. The person filing a violation may appoint someone to speak on their behalf as approved by the ASNMSU Chief Elections Officer or may answer all necessary questions about the violation via email.
- C. If a violation has been filed against a candidate, the candidate:
1. Will be given notice of the violation and its contents via email; and
  2. A twenty-four (24) hour minimum notice of a meeting in front of the ASNMSU Election Board or Chief Elections Officer and other ASNMSU members as deemed necessary, including the ASNMSU Attorney, Deputy Attorney General, and Deputy Elections Officer; and
  3. This meeting is to speak on the candidate's behalf about the violation. The candidate may request to stay anonymous and not appear before the ASNMSU Election Board.
- D. If necessary, the ASNMSU Election Board will meet both weekends of the two weeks that campaigning and elections will be conducted. The ASNMSU Election Board will hear the case from the person who submitted the violation and the person whom the violation is against. During this meeting, a decision about the consequences will be made. Both parties will be made aware of the decisions and a rationale immediately after the meeting ends, either in person or via email; and
- E. Once a decision is made, and if necessary, information on how to file an appeal with the ASNMSU Supreme Court will be given. From there, the ASNMSU Supreme Court Chief Justice and Associate Justices will assist.

2-8-2. ELECTION BOARD VIOLATION HEARING PROCEDURE

- A. The ASNMSU Election Board shall hear testimony in a session open to the public and shall deliberate on the judgment in a closed session:
  1. Dates of the ASNMSU Election Board meetings should be posted on the appropriate ASNMSU media accounts.
- B. All members of the ASNMSU shall have the right to submit a violation form against any candidate in the ASNMSU elections; and
- C. The candidate against whom a violation is filed and the ASNMSU member filing the violation must be allowed to present their points:
  1. ASNMSU members filing the violation may request to stay anonymous and not appear for the ASNMSU Election Board meetings; and
  2. ASNMSU members must file their violation directly to the ASNMSU Chief Elections Officer and maintain communication if necessary.

- D. The ASNMSU Election Board shall render its decision and rationale immediately after the meeting; and
- E. The candidate against whom the violation is filed and the ASNMSU member filing the violation must be informed of the ASNMSU Election Board's decision and the appeal process.

2-8-3. ELECTION CODE PENALTIES

Any person or election official who has been found to have violated the election may be:

- A. Prohibited (if an official candidate) from having their name on the ballots; and
- B. Disqualified as an official candidate; and
- C. Disqualified from assuming office; and
- D. Subject to such (other) penalties as prescribed by an ASNMSU Court, ASNMSU official, ASNMSU Election Board, or disciplinary body having authority to impose such penalties:
  - 1. Decisions of the ASNMSU Election Board to disqualify or remove votes from a candidate will automatically trigger an appeal through the ASNMSU Supreme Court:
    - a. It shall be the responsibility of the Chair of the ASNMSU Election Board to inform the candidate and ASNMSU Supreme Court of such decision immediately after the ASNMSU Election Board meeting at which the decision was made; and
    - b. Candidates shall have the option of canceling the appeal. This request will have to be filed directly with the ASNMSU Supreme Court.

2-9. VIOLATION APPEAL PROCEDURES

The following procedures shall be followed in the appeal of any ASNMSU Election violation penalty:

- A. All appeals shall be taken to the ASNMSU Supreme Court; and
- B. The appeal procedure is to be used when a member of the ASNMSU wishes to have the ASNMSU Supreme Court review the decision of the ASNMSU Election Board, believing that the ASNMSU Election Board violated the bylaws while making the decision, or when a party has been harmed as a result of the bylaws of the ASNMSU, and not because of the actions of another person or party; and
- C. All members of ASNMSU shall have the right to one (1) appeal of a lower ASNMSU Court's decision; and
- D. Upon the ASNMSU Supreme Court agreeing to hear an appeal, no additional evidence or witnesses shall be heard; and
- E. In its review on appeal, the ASNMSU Supreme Court may affirm, modify, reverse, or set aside the judgment or order from which the appeal is taken; and

- F. All appeal proceedings will commence and be adjudicated in accordance with the Rules of Procedure for the ASNMSU Courts.

2-10. ELECTION PROCEDURES

The following procedures shall be followed in the conduct of any ASNMSU Election.

2-10-1. VOTING PROCEDURE

Using the appropriate NMSU login information, students may only vote one (1) time for any election. This will allow only registered students who are fee-paying members of the ASNMSU to vote.

2-10-2. COUNTING THE VOTE PROCEDURES

- A. With internet voting, the voting results must be collected by at least three (3) ASNMSU Election Board representatives, including either the ASNMSU Chief Elections Officer or Chief Elections Officer's appointed representative and two (2) other voting members of the ASNMSU Election Board within one (1) hour from the official close of the polls. This deadline may be extended for technological problems beyond human control or when three (3) ASNMSU Election Board members are absent. In such cases, the deadline will be extended one (1) hour, and the ASNMSU Chief Elections Officer will be responsible for finding a replacement, who is not involved in the election, for the absent ASNMSU Election Board members; and
- B. The ASNMSU Chief Elections Officer shall write the total number of votes cast for each person and the total number of votes cast for and against each constitutional amendment, referendum, or other question. For internet voting, the ASNMSU Chief Elections Officer and at least two (2) ASNMSU Election Board members, who were witnesses to the collecting of results from the voting software, shall sign a statement certifying the results of the election. The receiving of voting software results shall be in accordance with procedures prescribed by the ASNMSU Chief Elections Officer; and
- C. Regarding announcing the results, the ASNMSU Chief Elections Officer shall, by proclamation, announce the results of the election as follows:
1. At the closing of polls, the ASNMSU Election Board, and any individuals they deem necessary, will have a closed session to compile and certify the results prior to announcing the results; and
  2. With internet voting, the unofficial results of the elections shall be posted no later than 11:00 pm on Election Day unless there is a problem that would make internet services unavailable. In the event of this happening, the unofficial results of the election will be posted within two (2) hours of receipt of the results; and
  3. Official results shall be posted no later than ten (10) business days following the closing of the polls; and
  4. In the event of a contested result, the results will be posted upon tabulation of votes; and
  5. Election results, unofficial and official, shall be posted in the following areas:
    - a. On the door of the Office of the ASNMSU; and

- b. A copy of the official election results will be sent to student media outlets by the ASNMSU Chief Elections Officer within one (1) week of any general; and
  - c. The ASNMSU website within one (1) week of any general.
6. A copy of the official results will be sent to the ASNMSU President and Vice President; and
  7. The ASNMSU Chief Elections Officer shall keep on file the official results and the original certification of results.
- D. Regarding voting records, the ASNMSU Chief Elections Officer shall keep all documentation cast in the general election only in case of a contest and only until the contest is resolved; and
- E. Regarding the elections of ASNMSU Senators, the number of official or write-in candidates equaling the number of positions to be filled from their College, who receive the most votes, shall be elected to fill those positions, provided that:
1. There is no tie between two (2) or more candidates from a College for the last seat up for contention.
- F. If there is a tie, there shall be a run-off election consisting of those candidates who are tied for the last seat up for contention. The run-off election shall be for only those two (2) tied candidates. Any seat that has already been attained by another candidate who received more votes, no matter the number, than those who are tied, shall be retained by the candidate who received those votes; and
- G. It is unlawful for anyone except the ASNMSU Chief Elections Officer to obtain the election results prior to online poll closing.

2-10-3. ELECTION CONTENTION PROCEDURES

- A. Regarding the recount of votes, any official candidate or that candidate's representative may request a recount of the votes cast concerning that particular ASNMSU race by filing a written notice with the ASNMSU Chief Elections Officer by 5:00 pm the next business day following the announcement of the election results. All recounts shall be conducted at the same time and shall be prescribed by the ASNMSU Chief Elections Officer; and
- B. Regarding contention of an election, any ASNMSU member may contest the election of any official or write-in candidate when they have a clear and just ground to contest that election. Any action to contest the general election shall be commenced by filing a written notice of contest by 5:00 pm the following business day of the announcement of the unofficial results of the general election:
1. The notice of contest shall be filed with the ASNMSU Attorney General and Chief Elections Officer. Copies of the notice of contest shall be immediately furnished to all concerned candidates and officials; and
  2. The notice must contain the specific offense or offenses which allegedly took place. If the contestant claims that illegal votes have been cast or counted for the contestant, the contestant must specify the poll where such illegal votes were cast or counted and the facts showing illegality.

- C. Regarding investigation and judgment, all issues of bylaws and fact shall be investigated by the Office of the ASNMSU Attorney General in conjunction with the ASNMSU Election Board and Chief Elections Officer. It shall be the duty of the ASNMSU Attorney General to hear such issues without delay as speedily as possible and to report those findings and opinions to the ASNMSU Election Board. At this time, the ASNMSU Election Board shall render any necessary preliminary judgment. If, in the judgment of the ASNMSU Election Board, such an error or fraud has been committed which is of such extent to render the legal results of the election to be indeterminable, the ASNMSU Election Board may order a new election:
  - 1. The ASNMSU Election Board shall render its written decision by 5:00 pm on the second (2nd) business day following their meeting; and
  - 2. The Chair of the ASNMSU Election Board shall verify that a copy of the ASNMSU Election Board's written decision is delivered by mail or hand to each party involved.
- D. Regarding the appeal of a contest, any decision of the ASNMSU Election Board may be appealed by 5:00 pm the following business day after the decision has been rendered to the ASNMSU Supreme Court. The appeal shall be filed with the ASNMSU Supreme Court:
  - 1. Should an appeal be submitted, which may result in the penalty of being excluded from an election, the election should not commence until a decision on the appeal is rendered; and
  - 2. A contestant or contestor shall have the right to retain qualified ASNMSU members as student counsel for representation before any ASNMSU decision-making bodies.

2-11. HOMECOMING ELECTIONS

2-11-1 HOMECOMING NOMINATION PROCEDURES

Any on-campus club or campus organization shall be allowed to appoint two (2) individuals to serve as candidates for Homecoming Royalty:

- A. Any candidate, regardless of gender identity, can be nominated as a candidate for the position of Homecoming Royalty.

2-11-2 HOMECOMING ELECTION PROCEDURES

Candidates for Homecoming Royalty shall be bound to the Campaign Rules as established in Campaign Rules:

- A. Any violations concerning Homecoming Court Elections shall be referred to the ASNMSU Chief Elections Officer and Executive Director of Activities; and
- B. The top two (2) candidates who run shall be crowned Homecoming Royalty regardless of gender identity or organization affiliation; and

- C. To abide by gender-inclusive language, the ASNMSU Department of Activities must provide materials for everyone on the ballot with respect to their gender identity and royalty title, with the options of King, Queen, or Royalty to whoever is crowned Homecoming Royalty.

2-12. INVALIDITY

If any portion of Chapter 2: The Election Code is found invalid by the ASNMSU Supreme Court, ASNMSU Advisors, or the NMSU Vice President of Student Success, only that portion of Chapter 2 will be considered invalid.

2-13. AMENDMENTS

Amendments to The Election Code may be enacted by a simple majority vote of the ASNMSU Senate as a legislative bill:

- A. The ASNMSU Chief Senate Clerk shall make available copies of the above amendments to the ASNMSU Chief Elections Officer within three (3) business days of being signed into bylaw; and
- B. The ASNMSU Chief Elections Officer shall inform the ASNMSU Deputy Elections Officer of the ASNMSU Senate amendments to Chapter 2 of the ASNMSU bylaws; and
- C. During weekly staff meetings, the ASNMSU Chief Elections Officer shall inform the ASNMSU Executive Directors of the above amendments.

3. EXECUTIVE BYLAWS

3-1. OATH OF OFFICE FOR THE PRESIDENT AND VICE PRESIDENT

Before taking office, the ASNMSU President and ASNMSU Vice President must swear the following oath or affirmation before assuming their respective office. This oath shall be administered publicly by the ASNMSU Supreme Court Chief Justice:

“I, (State your name), do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully execute the Office of the President (or Vice President) of the Associated Students of New Mexico State University; and will, to the best of my ability, preserve, protect, and defend the Constitutions and laws of the United States of America and the State of New Mexico and the Constitution and bylaws of the Associated Students of New Mexico State University; and I will faithfully and impartially discharge the duties of the Office of President (or Vice President) to the best of my ability.”

- E. Before the ASNMSU Supreme Court can consider the impeachment of the ASNMSU President or Vice President, the ASNMSU Supreme Court Chief Justice will notify, in writing within two (2) days after receiving the resolution, the person who is to be impeached and the charges against this person:
  1. The person who is charged will be allowed to speak at any meeting where the person's position is being officially discussed.
- F. If a resolution of impeachment is brought against the ASNMSU Vice President, the ASNMSU President Pro Tempore shall preside over the ASNMSU Senate to resolve the matter of the impeachment proceedings; and
- G. The ASNMSU President and Vice President shall not be removed from office unless all policies, procedures, and methods of removal, in accordance with the policies and procedures of the NMSU professional staff, are followed; and
- H. Any ASNMSU Executive Director may be removed from office if an act of impeachment is brought against said official by a three-quarters (3/4) vote of the membership of the ASNMSU Senate present and voting and is found guilty of the charges made against said official by the ASNMSU Supreme Court:

1. A resolution will be introduced to the ASNMSU Senate, detailing the specific reasons for impeachment; and
2. The ASNMSU Chief Senate Clerk will notify, in writing within two (2) days of the introduction of the resolution, the person who is to be impeached and the charges against this person; and
3. The person who is charged will be allowed to speak at any meeting where that person's position is being officially discussed; and
4. No impeachment resolution will be allowed to go through the ASNMSU Senate Committee of the Whole unless the ASNMSU Chief Senate Clerk has notified the person who is to be impeached within two (2) days of the meeting where the ASNMSU Senate will introduce the resolution of impeachment to the ASNMSU Senate Committee of the Whole; and
5. ASNMSU Executive Directors or Advisors shall not be removed from office unless all policies, procedures, and methods of removal, in accordance with the policies and procedures of the NMSU professional staff, are followed.

3-12. DELEGATION OF SIGNATURE AUTHORITY

- A. Department heads or other approvers may delegate their signature authority, though not their responsibility, on routine business transactions to temporary alternates:
  1. Acceptable alternatives include department heads, professional assistants, or by order of succession.
- B. The department head must give written notice of temporary delegation of signature authority to the ASNMSU Advisors, Comptroller, and Fiscal Advisors.

3-13. INVALIDITY

If any portion of Chapter 3: Executive Bylaws is found invalid by the ASNMSU Supreme Court, ASNMSU Advisors, or the NMSU Vice President of Student Success, only that portion of Chapter 3 will be considered invalid.

3-14. AMENDMENTS

Amendments to the Executive Bylaws may be made by a simple majority of the ASNMSU Senate as a legislative bill:

- A. The ASNMSU Chief Senate Clerk shall make available copies of the above amendments to the ASNMSU Chief of Staff within three (3) business days of it being signed into bylaw; and
- B. The ASNMSU Executive Directors shall inform the ASNMSU Assistant Directors of the ASNMSU Senate amendments to Chapter 3 of the ASNMSU bylaws; and
- C. During weekly staff meetings, the ASNMSU Chief of Staff shall inform the ASNMSU Executive Directors of the above amendments.

4. JUDICIAL BRANCH

4-1. JURISDICTION

4-1-1. DEFINITIONS

- A. A “case” is defined as a suit established arising from a dispute or an official complaint filed with the ASNMSU Court in which the plaintiff details the claims against the defendant and requests judgment from the ASNMSU Court; and
- B. An ASNMSU Court has “original jurisdiction” over a certain type of case when it is the first Court in which such a case is heard. The decisions of ASNMSU Courts with original jurisdiction can only be reviewed through the appeals process; and
- C. An ASNMSU Court has “appellate jurisdiction” over a certain type of case when it has the authority to review the decision made by a lower ASNMSU Court concerning such a case. ASNMSU Courts of appellate jurisdiction have the power to uphold, overturn, amend, or otherwise modify the decisions or sentences handed down from lower ASNMSU Courts so long as such modifications do not violate the ASNMSU bylaws; and
- D. An ASNMSU Court has “sole jurisdiction” over a certain type of case if it is the only ASNMSU Court with the authority to hear that type of case.

4-1-2. ESTABLISHMENT OF JURISDICTION

- A. The ASNMSU Court shall not initiate case proceedings listed under Chapter 4 or Appendix A unless a case is first filed with the ASNMSU Court; and
- B. The ASNMSU Supreme Court shall have jurisdiction over all cases arising under the ASNMSU Constitution, statutory enactments, legislative resolutions, or executive order of the ASNMSU in accordance with 1-5-2; and
- C. Chapter 4 shall supersede Appendix A of the ASNMSU Law Book; and
- D. The ASNMSU Supreme Court shall have original jurisdiction over all these cases unless otherwise provided for through the bylaws; and
- E. The ASNMSU Supreme Court may allow a temporary lower ASNMSU Court or tribunal to decide a particular case by appointing an ASNMSU Special Master to act as judge of this inferior ASNMSU Court in accordance with 4-9 and the Rules of Procedure for the ASNMSU Courts; and
- F. The ASNMSU Supreme Court shall have sole appellate jurisdiction in all cases involving reviewing a decision made by an inferior ASNMSU Court.

4-1-3. CIVIL ACTION

The ASNMSU Supreme Court shall have original jurisdiction over all cases involving civil action unless otherwise provided for through the bylaws:

- A. Civil action shall be defined as a judicial proceeding brought by one (1) party against another. A party may commence a civil action against another party for an alleged violation of the ASNMSU

Law Book in order to prevent a legal violation from occurring or for the protection of a guaranteed under the ASNMSU bylaws; and

- B. Both parties in civil trials must be given an opportunity to argue their points, present witnesses, and evidence, and cross-examine the opposing side's witnesses; and
- C. All ASNMSU fee-paying members shall have the right to commence a civil action in the ASNMSU Courts in accordance with 1-2-1 and 7-1-1; and
- D. Civil Action shall be commenced, adjudicated, and appealed in accordance with the Rules of Procedure for the ASNMSU Courts as outlined in Appendix A.

4-1-4. APPEALS

The ASNMSU Supreme Court shall have sole appellate jurisdiction over all cases from an inferior ASNMSU Court:

- A. The ASNMSU Supreme Court shall convene to hear an appeal when an ASNMSU fee-paying member requests to have the ASNMSU Supreme Court review the decision of a lower ASNMSU Court or tribunal. An individual may petition the ASNMSU Supreme Court for an appeal if they believe that the inferior ASNMSU Court violated the ASNMSU bylaws while making their decision or when a party has been harmed as a result of the ASNMSU bylaws and not because of the actions of another person or party; and
- B. All ASNMSU fee-paying members shall have the right to one (1) appeal of a lower ASNMSU Court's decision; and
- C. Cases in which the ASNMSU Supreme Court exercised original jurisdiction shall not be subject to appeal; and
- D. If the ASNMSU Supreme Court reviews a decision that an ASNMSU Supreme Court Associate Justice made while serving as an ASNMSU Special Master, that ASNMSU Supreme Court Associate Justice must recuse themselves from the appeal; and
- E. Upon appeal to the ASNMSU Supreme Court, no additional evidence shall be introduced, and no new witnesses called; and
- F. All appellate proceedings will be commenced and adjudicated in accordance with the Rules of Procedure for the ASNMSU Courts as outlined in Appendix A.

4-1-5. IMPEACHMENTS

The ASNMSU Supreme Court shall have sole jurisdiction over impeachment proceedings for all ASNMSU executive and legislative officials in accordance with 1-5-2. All impeachment proceedings are to be treated as a formal trial in the form of ASNMSU v. Defendant:

- A. Upon receiving a Resolution of Impeachment from the ASNMSU Senate, the ASNMSU Supreme Court Chief Justice shall convene an ASNMSU Court of Impeachment. The ASNMSU Court of Impeachment shall consist of the entire ASNMSU Supreme Court or a quorum. The ASNMSU

Supreme Court Chief Justice will notify the person to be impeached, in writing within five (5) days of receiving the Resolution of Impeachment; and

- B. The ASNMSU Court of Impeachment will convene within five (5) days of sending the aforementioned notification; and
- C. Impeachment proceedings against ASNMSU Senators for attendance reasons are only initiated by the ASNMSU Supreme Court in accordance with the ASNMSU Senate Rules; and
- D. All impeachment trials shall be held in the ASNMSU Court of Impeachment, with the ASNMSU Supreme Court Chief Justice presiding. All impeachment proceedings will be held in accordance with the Rules of Procedure for the ASNMSU Courts; and
- E. Upon conclusion of the trial, a majority vote by the ASNMSU Court of Impeachment removes said person from office. The ASNMSU Court of Impeachment may also prohibit said person from holding or seeking an ASNMSU office for a set amount of time not to exceed four (4) years:
  - 1. If a member of the executive branch is to be found guilty by the ASNMSU Supreme Court, additional steps may be necessary to terminate employment in accordance with NMSU Policy and Procedure.

4-1-6. AMENDING THE JURISDICTION OF THE ASNMSU JUDICIARY

The ASNMSU Senate shall have the sole power to propose changes to the jurisdiction of any ASNMSU Court so long as such a change does not violate 1-5. Jurisdictional changes shall be in the form of an ASNMSU Senate bill amending the preceding sections. Such a bill will go through the regular bill process. Changes to the judiciary's basic judicial power shall be a constitutional resolution proposing amendments to sections 1-5.

4-1-7. ADOPTING CHANGES TO THE RULES OF PROCEDURE FOR THE ASNMSU COURTS

The ASNMSU Supreme Court shall have the sole power to adopt changes to the Rules of Procedure for the ASNMSU Courts. The ASNMSU Law Book Committee may formally recommend changes, but their adoption will be at the discretion of the ASNMSU Supreme Court. The Rules of Procedure shall be posted in Appendix A of the ASNMSU Law Book and shall carry the force of the bylaws. The ASNMSU Supreme Court shall not adopt any rule that violates an ASNMSU statute or deprives an ASNMSU fee-paying member of a right guaranteed under the ASNMSU bylaws. Should such a rule be adopted, it will be considered null and void. ASNMSU Courts reserve the right to suspend a portion of the Rules of Procedure to accommodate unforeseen circumstances.

4-2. ASNMSU SUPREME COURT JUSTICES

4-2-1. JUSTICES QUALIFICATIONS

The ASNMSU Advisors shall post the qualifications for the offices of the ASNMSU Supreme Court Chief Justice or Associate Justice in the announcement of the position vacancy:

- A. Applicants for the positions of ASNMSU Supreme Court Chief Justice or Associate Justice shall be ASNMSU fee-paying members and shall have been ASNMSU fee-paying members for the fall or spring semester prior to their appointment; and

- B. Applicants for the position of ASNMSU Supreme Court Chief Justice or Associate Justice shall not be on probation for academic progress, GPA, or disciplinary reasons:
  - 1. Waivers on academic progress, GPA, or disciplinary probation will not be permitted for individuals applying for the positions of ASNMSU Supreme Court Chief Justice or Associate Justice.

4-2-2. OATH OF OFFICE FOR THE ASNMSU SUPREME COURT JUSTICES

The ASNMSU Supreme Court Justices are required to swear the oath, or affirmation, before assuming their respective office:

“I (state your name) do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support and interpret the bylaws of the Associated Students of New Mexico State University unbiasedly and will to the best of my ability perform the duties of Justice of the ASNMSU Supreme Court.”

4-2-3. HIRING OF THE ASNMSU SUPREME COURT JUSTICES

Upon the vacancy of the ASNMSU Supreme Court Chief Justice, the ASNMSU President shall hire an ASNMSU fee-paying member to the Office of the ASNMSU Supreme Court Chief Justice. Upon the vacancy of an ASNMSU Supreme Court Associate Justice, the ASNMSU Supreme Court Chief Justice shall hire an ASNMSU fee-paying member to the Office of the ASNMSU Supreme Court Associate Justice.

4-2-4. DISMISSAL OF THE ASNMSU SUPREME COURT JUSTICES

- A. If, at such time, an ASNMSU Supreme Court Justice fails to meet the qualifications required for the position, they must immediately resign. The ASNMSU Supreme Court Chief Justice is responsible for checking the qualifications before the appointment is made; and
- B. After the ASNMSU Supreme Court Justice is confirmed, the ASNMSU Supreme Court Chief Justice in conjunction with the ASNMSU Advisors will keep a record of the qualifications and request a written letter of resignation if an ASNMSU Supreme Court Justice is placed on probation for academic progress, GPA, or disciplinary reasons; and
- C. If the ASNMSU Supreme Court Chief Justice fails to meet the qualifications for the position, the senior ASNMSU Supreme Court Associate Justice will be responsible for asking for the resignation of the ASNMSU Supreme Court Chief Justice:
  - 1. At such time, the senior ASNMSU Supreme Court Associate Justice shall assume the responsibilities of ASNMSU Supreme Court Chief Justice until the ASNMSU President makes a permanent appointment.
- D. The ASNMSU Supreme Court Chief Justice and Associate Justices shall only be removed from office if all policies, procedures, and methods of removal, in accordance with the policies and procedures of the NMSU professional staff, are followed.

4-2-5. RESIGNATION OF THE ASNMSU SUPREME COURT JUSTICES

Any ASNMSU Supreme Court Chief Justice or Associate Justice may resign. The ASNMSU Supreme Court Chief Justice shall submit a letter of resignation to the ASNMSU President with copies sent to the senior ASNMSU Supreme Court Associate Justice and Vice President. The ASNMSU Supreme Court Associate Justices shall submit a resignation letter to the ASNMSU Supreme Court Chief Justice with copies sent to the ASNMSU President and Vice President.

4-2-6. IMPEACHMENTS

Impeachment charges may be brought against any member of the ASNMSU Supreme Court in accordance with the ASNMSU Constitution by a resolution of the ASNMSU Senate for alleged nonfeasance, misfeasance, or malfeasance:

- A. Impeachment proceedings for a member of the ASNMSU Supreme Court shall be carried out in the ASNMSU Senate:
  1. Written notification of the allegations and a factual description of the grievances must be delivered to the ASNMSU Supreme Court Justice so charged, President, Vice President, and Supreme Court Chief Justice within five (5) academic days after the ASNMSU Senate action. The impeachment proceedings will be scheduled no earlier than five (5) academic days after the notification is served upon the defendant. The ASNMSU Supreme Court Justice and Justice's counsel, if any, will be allowed to speak in the ASNMSU Supreme Court Justice's defense at the proceedings:
    - a. In such case that the ASNMSU Supreme Court Chief Justice is up for impeachment, written notification of the allegations and a factual description of the grievances must be delivered to the senior ASNMSU Supreme Court Associate Justice within five (5) academic days after the ASNMSU Senate action.
- B. The ASNMSU Senate may adjourn to a closed meeting for final deliberation of the charges, but the vote for impeachment must be taken in an open meeting; and
- C. The impeachment vote in the ASNMSU Senate must carry a three-quarters (3/4) majority for the defendant to be found guilty of the charges made against the ASNMSU Supreme Court Justice:
  1. If the ASNMSU Supreme Court Justice is to be impeached from office by the ASNMSU Senate, additional steps may be necessary to terminate employment in accordance with NMSU Policy and Procedure.

4-2-7. IMPEACHMENT PROCEDURE

A resolution will be introduced into the ASNMSU Senate. This resolution will include the specific reasons for impeachment. In writing, the ASNMSU Chief Senate Clerk will notify within two (2) days of the introduction of the resolution, the person to be impeached and the charges against this person. The person charged can speak at any meeting where that person's position is being officially discussed. No impeachment resolution will be allowed to go through the ASNMSU Senate Committee of the Whole unless the ASNMSU Chief Senate Clerk has notified the person to be impeached within two (2) days of the meeting where the ASNMSU Senate to the ASNMSU Senate Committee of the Whole will introduce the resolution of impeachment.

4-3. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

4-3-1. DUTIES OF THE ASNMSU SUPREME COURT CHIEF JUSTICE

When the ASNMSU Supreme Court finds that a policy-making body has violated this act, all business conducted by the body at that meeting shall be invalid; the ASNMSU Supreme Court may take other action if appropriate and in accordance with the bylaw.

5-1-6. EMERGENCY MEETING

The ASNMSU Senate may convene an Emergency Meeting if:

- A. A simple majority of ASNMSU Senators, in writing or by petition, request an ASNMSU Senate Emergency Meeting. The request must be submitted to the ASNMSU Vice President and Advisors; in the absence of the ASNMSU Vice President, the ASNMSU Advisors may receive requests for an emergency meeting:
  1. In their request, ASNMSU Senators must propose a time and place for the ASNMSU Senate Emergency Meeting and the subject matter to be discussed at the ASNMSU Senate Emergency Meeting and ensure the meeting will occur at least seventy-two (72) hours after the conclusion of the current day unless the following apply:
    - a. The public body did not expect the circumstances giving rise to the meeting; and
    - b. If the public body does not act immediately, injury or damage to persons or property or substantial financial loss to the public body is likely.
- B. A quorum, as outlined in section 8-9-E of the ASNMSU Law Book, must be achieved for any business to be transacted at any ASNMSU Senate Emergency Meeting; and
- C. The ASNMSU Chief Senate Clerk shall execute their duties as prescribed by section 8-5 of the ASNMSU Law Book at any Emergency Meeting:
  1. In the event that the ASNMSU Chief Senate Clerk is unable to attend the ASNMSU Senate Emergency Meeting, the ASNMSU Deputy Senate Clerk shall assume the responsibility for the duration of the ASNMSU Senate Emergency Meeting. If the ASNMSU Deputy Senate Clerk is also unavailable, the ASNMSU Senate shall appoint from its membership, by a simple majority vote, a member to execute the duties of the ASNMSU Chief Senate Clerk until such time as the ASNMSU Chief Senate Clerk can resume their duty or is appointed in accordance with section 8-5 of the ASNMSU Law Book.
- D. The ASNMSU Senate shall abide by all procedural rules outlined in section 8 of the ASNMSU Law Book. Only the business for which the ASNMSU Senate Emergency Meeting was convened may be discussed; and
- E. The Presiding Officer of an ASNMSU Senate Emergency Meeting shall be the ASNMSU Vice President:
  1. If the ASNMSU Vice President is unable or unwilling to preside over the ASNMSU Senate Emergency Meeting, the ASNMSU President Pro Tempore shall serve as the Presiding Officer; and

2. If the ASNMSU President Pro Tempore is unable or unwilling to serve as the Presiding Officer of the ASNMSU Senate Emergency Meeting, the ASNMSU President Pro Tempore shall designate an ASNMSU Senator to preside.
- F. The ASNMSU Chief Senate Clerk or ASNMSU Senator acting as the ASNMSU Chief Senate Clerk must notify the NMSU Dean of Students in writing at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to an ASNMSU Senate Emergency Meeting being convened; and
  - G. The ASNMSU Vice President or Presiding Officer of the ASNMSU Senate Emergency Meeting and the ASNMSU Chief Senate Clerk or acting ASNMSU Chief Senate Clerk shall sign and date the Journal of the ASNMSU Senate Emergency Meeting and submit it to the ASNMSU Advisors with a signed and dated letter explaining the need for the ASNMSU Senate Emergency Meeting and what, if any, actions were undertaken or ordered during the ASNMSU Senate Emergency Meeting:
    1. The ASNMSU Advisors shall make the Journal of the ASNMSU Senate Emergency Meeting and the letter of explanation available in the same manner as the Journal of a regularly scheduled meeting.
  - H. The ASNMSU Advisors may, with proper and due cause, request that the ASNMSU Senate review any actions undertaken or ordered during an ASNMSU Senate Emergency Meeting at the next regularly scheduled ASNMSU Senate meeting; and
  - I. The actions undertaken or ordered during an ASNMSU Senate Emergency Meeting of any ASNMSU Senate may be appealed to the ASNMSU Supreme Court:
    1. The ASNMSU Supreme Court may render illegal or improper actions and decisions undertaken or ordered by the ASNMSU Senate during an ASNMSU Senate Emergency Meeting null and void and may prescribe such remedy as is proper and just under the bylaws; and
    2. Any review of an ASNMSU Senate Emergency Meeting undertaken by the ASNMSU Senate and the subsequent decision of the ASNMSU Senate shall not exclude the actions or decisions undertaken or ordered during an ASNMSU Senate Emergency Meeting from being appealed to the ASNMSU Supreme Court.
  - J. The ASNMSU Senate may choose to review any actions undertaken or ordered by any policy-making body of the ASNMSU in an ASNMSU Senate Emergency Meeting and may overturn any action or decision undertaken or ordered by any policy-making body of the ASNMSU; and
  - K. Within ten (10) working days of the emergency meeting, the ASNMSU Attorney General shall be informed by the ASNMSU Chief Senate Clerk of the reason for the meeting and the actions taken in the meeting.

5-1-7. BROADCASTING AND RECORDING

- A. All public policy-making meetings shall be broadcasted on a publicly accessible platform. They shall also be recorded and kept in ASNMSU records; and

- B. At the time of recording or broadcasting, the Chair of the ASNMSU meeting must make an announcement to the guests informing them of the broadcast or recording; and
- C. Any guest attending a public policy-making body’s meeting may legally record at any point throughout the duration of the meeting; and
- D. Any guest, official, or entity broadcasting or recording a public policy-making body’s meeting will be asked to sign a no-affiliation agreement as well as include a no-affiliation disclosure in their publication of a broadcast or recording. The ASNMSU Sergeant-At-Arms and Vice Chair of any ASNMSU committee will be responsible for enforcing this section; and
- E. If the party failed to provide a no-affiliation disclosure in the publication of the broadcast or recording, they may redeem their rights by doing one (1) or more of the following:
  - 1. Provide a no affiliation disclosure in the publication of the broadcast or recording; or
  - 2. Provide public notice that the broadcast or recording was not affiliated with the ASNMSU.
- F. Permissible areas of broadcasting and recording shall be from the ASNMSU Senate gallery; and
- G. Any device causing audio distraction will be removed from the premise.

5-2. SENATE VACANCY ACTS

An act relating to vacancies in the ASNMSU Senate, defining a College Council and prescribing the manor for filling vacancies in the ASNMSU Senate.

5-2-1. DEFINITIONS:

- A. “Colleges” means the existing Undergraduate Colleges and the Graduate School of NMSU; and
- B. “College Council” means a student organization whose purpose is to promote the interest of the students of their respective College, and which is recognized by NMSU and by the NMSU Dean of the College with whom the College Council is affiliated. A “College Council” shall consist of no less than ten (10) members of the College elected or appointed to such College Council in accordance with the respective College Council's Constitution. The ASNMSU shall recognize no College as having more than one (1) College Council, nor shall the ASNMSU recognize any College Council which represents two (2) or more Colleges; and
- C. “Recall” means the removal from the official Office of an ASNMSU Senator by the College Council of the College that the ASNMSU Senator represents.

5-2-2. CAUSES OF VACANCY

A vacancy in the ASNMSU Senate shall be caused by:

- A. The failure to elect an ASNMSU Senator at the time prescribed by bylaw; and
- B. The failure of a person elected to the Office of ASNMSU Senator to meet the constitutional qualifications for holding such office; and

- C. The death or resignation of an ASNMSU Senator; and
- D. Expulsion of an ASNMSU Senator in accordance with the ASNMSU Rules of the Senate; and
- E. Recall of an ASNMSU Senator in accordance with the ASNMSU bylaws.

5-2-3. RESIGNATION OF SENATORS

Any member of the ASNMSU Senate may resign the Office of ASNMSU Senator by filing a written statement of resignation with the President of the ASNMSU Senate. Upon the absence of any ASNMSU Senator from four (4) consecutive regularly scheduled meetings of the ASNMSU Senate, such ASNMSU Senator shall be considered to have resigned:

- A. Any ASNMSU Senator who changes their major out of the College that they represent must submit a written statement of resignation.

5-2-4. PRESCRIBING A RECALL ELECTION

An ASNMSU Senator shall be recalled when:

- A. A recall petition containing signatures of students within that ASNMSU Senator's College, equivalent to at least twenty-five percent (25%) of the total number of votes cast by students in the ASNMSU Senator's College during the election in which that ASNMSU Senator was elected to their current term is presented to the College Council of the ASNMSU Senator's College; and
- B. The College Council verifies the signatures and the petition and endorses the petition by a simple majority of a quorum of the College Council in accordance with the Constitution and Bylaws of the College Council; and
- C. The ASNMSU members of the ASNMSU Senator's College express a "no-confidence" by a two-thirds (2/3) vote supervised by the College Council; and
- D. The ASNMSU Senator must have held office at least during three (3) meetings of the ASNMSU Senate prior to the College's vote on the recall petition; and
- E. The ASNMSU Senate judges the election results.

5-2-5. OCCURRENCE OF VACANCY

Upon the failure to elect an ASNMSU Senator, the failure of a person elected to the Office of ASNMSU Senator to meet the qualifications of office, death, resignation, or pending resignation of a graduating ASNMSU Senator, or the expulsion or recall of an ASNMSU Senator, the Office of ASNMSU Senator shall be considered vacant or vacant pending resignation, and subject to normal appointment procedures.

5-2-6. COUNCIL SHALL BE INFORMED OF VACANCY

When a vacancy or pending vacancy occurs in the ASNMSU Senate, the President of the ASNMSU Senate shall, in writing and within five (5) business days, inform the Presiding Officer or Advisor of the College Council of the College of the available position:

- A. That a vacancy has occurred, or will occur, in the ASNMSU Senate in the representation of their respective College Council; and
- B. That the College Council may select an interim ASNMSU Senator from the membership of the College Council to serve the remainder of the unexpired term; and
- C. Of the qualifications for holding the Office of ASNMSU Senator; and
- D. Of the provisions of the ASNMSU Senate Vacancy Act for appointing an interim ASNMSU Senator.

5-2-7. VALIDITY OF APPOINTMENT

For an appointment of an interim ASNMSU Senator to be considered valid by ASNMSU, the College Council of the College of the vacated position must:

- A. Approve each appointment by a majority of a quorum of the college council membership in accordance with the College Council's Constitution and Bylaws:
  - 1. The approved interim ASNMSU Senator must submit to the ASNMSU Vice President the Qualification Check Release Form to be sworn in.
- B. Submit to the ASNMSU Senate a written statement by the NMSU Dean of the College Council certifying that the body making the appointment is a College Council within the meaning of the ASNMSU Senate Vacancy Act; and
- C. Submit to the ASNMSU Senate a written statement signed by the Presiding Officer and the Advisor of the College Council certifying that the College Council of the vacated position has appointed a member of the College Council to the Office of ASNMSU Senator in accordance with the provisions of the ASNMSU Constitution and the provisions of the ASNMSU Senate Vacancy Act.

5-2-8. DEAN APPOINTMENTS

In the case where no College Council exists according to the ASNMSU definitions, the NMSU Dean of the College may appoint students to fill the vacant ASNMSU Senate seats.

- A. It shall be the right of an ASNMSU Senator:
1. To recuse oneself in the event of personal conflict of interest or pecuniary interest on the question posed for review; and
  2. To speak without fear of interruption on any question posed for review; and
  3. To have the last debate if they are the main author of a motion or a piece of legislation; and
  4. To be informed, upon request, of their total points accumulated; and
  5. To have thirty (30) seconds, immediately following their roll-call vote, to explain their vote; and
  6. To send, with the majority consent of the ASNMSU Senate, the ASNMSU Sergeant-At-Arms to secure absent ASNMSU Senators in the event quorum is not present; and
  7. To initiate, with majority consent of the ASNMSU Senate, procedures for censure or penalty as deemed necessary for ASNMSU Senators who do not render sufficient excuse for their absence of conduct; and
  8. To enter into debate at least twice on any motion; and
  9. An ASNMSU Senator may speak more than twice on a motion with a majority consent of the ASNMSU Senate; and

10. To yield the floor for purposes of question, clarification, or explanation.
- B. It shall be the duty of an ASNMSU Senator to perform the following faithfully and adequately:
1. Have extensive knowledge of the ASNMSU Law Book and the latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order; and
  2. Serve as a link between the students of their respective College and the ASNMSU; and
  3. Attend all required meetings: ASNMSU Senate meetings, ASNMSU Senate standing committee meetings, College Council meetings, ASNMSU Senate Orientations, ASNMSU Retreats, ASNMSU Senate special committee meetings for which the ASNMSU Senator has been appointed to and any others set forth by the ASNMSU Vice President; and
  4. Know the ASNMSU financial procedures and the ASNMSU Senate legislative procedures; and
  5. Be familiar with the ASNMSU Base Programs and organizations that frequently approach the ASNMSU Senate for funding; and
  6. Complete an ASNMSU Financial Procedures Workshop prior to writing any legislation; and
  7. Validity of an ASNMSU Financial Procedures Workshop completion shall be in effect for one (1) full term; and
  8. ASNMSU Senators must complete an ASNMSU Financial Procedures Workshop by the second ASNMSU Senate meeting of their elected term; and
  9. Vote on each question under review by the ASNMSU Senate:
    - a. Proxy voting will not be allowed under any conditions.
10. Submit excusal letters for approval for absences to required meetings:
- a. A majority vote of ASNMSU Senators present shall grant excusals:
    - i. Any ASNMSU Senator who has not sent a written excusal request to the Presiding Officer of the meeting and who is fifteen (15) or more minutes late shall be counted as unexcused from that meeting; and
    - ii. The Presiding Officer of the meeting may grant excusals of a personal nature and should not be read aloud.
  - b. Excusal requests from the ASNMSU Retreat shall be presented during the ASNMSU Senate meeting immediately preceding the ASNMSU Retreat; and
  - c. For absences from College Council meetings, excusals shall be submitted to the senior ASNMSU Senator and to the College Council President from their respective College.

- i. A majority of the College Council shall grant excusals; and
- ii. The President of the College Council may grant excusals of a personal nature and should not be read aloud; and
- iii. Have one ASNMSU Senator from each College give a College Council Report during each regular ASNMSU Senate meeting.

6-9. LEGISLATIVE IMPEACHMENT ACT

- A. Salaried officers of the ASNMSU Senate shall not be removed from office unless all policies, procedures, and methods of removal, in accordance with the policies and procedures of the NMSU professional staff, are followed; and
- B. Any ASNMSU Senator shall be removed from office if the ASNMSU Senator is referred to the ASNMSU Supreme Court by a three-quarters (3/4) vote of the ASNMSU Senate or if the ASNMSU Senator is referred to the ASNMSU Supreme Court by their College Council upon the accumulation of penalty points as mentioned in the ASNMSU Point System Act and the ASNMSU Senator is found guilty of the charges made against them.

6-9-1. PROCEDURE

- A. Before the ASNMSU Senate can refer an ASNMSU Senator to the ASNMSU Supreme Court for impeachment proceedings, a resolution must be introduced into the ASNMSU Senate. This resolution will include the specific reasons for referral; and
- B. Should the ASNMSU President Pro Tempore fail to fulfill their duties, they shall be removed by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the ASNMSU Senate; and
- C. ASNMSU Senate standing committee Chairs shall not be removed without a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the ASNMSU Senate, and ASNMSU Senate standing committee Vice Chairs shall not be removed without a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of ASNMSU Senate standing committee members; and
- D. After the introduction of the resolution, the ASNMSU Chief Senate Clerk shall notify the ASNMSU Senator in writing within two (2) days of any meeting where the ASNMSU Senator's position is being officially discussed; and
- E. The ASNMSU Senator who is charged will be allowed to speak at any meeting where their position is being officially discussed; and
- F. No referral resolution will be allowed to go through the ASNMSU Senate Committee of the Whole; and
- G. Before the ASNMSU Supreme Court can consider the impeachment of any ASNMSU Senator, the ASNMSU Supreme Court Chief Justice shall notify the ASNMSU Senator in writing, within (2) days, of the receipt of the resolution and the charges against the ASNMSU Senator; and
- H. Any ASNMSU Senator will be impeached upon a majority vote of the ASNMSU Supreme Court.

6-10. LEGISLATION RECOMMENDATIONS

6-10-1. MAIN PROVISIONS

- A. "Meeting" means either an ASNMSU Senate meeting or standing committee meeting.

- B. The following recommendations are for legislation under review by the ASNMSU Senate:
  1. "Do pass" if the majority looks favorable upon the bill, resulting in its movement to the next meeting or its final passage; or
  2. "Do not pass" if the majority looks unfavorably upon the bill, resulting in its movement to the next meeting or death on the Senate floor; or
  3. "Conditional do pass" if the legislation has not met its conditions but the majority votes to move it forward to the next ASNMSU Senate standing committee, provided the condition is met by 12 PM on the Wednesday prior to the next ASNMSU Senate meeting:
    - a. If the condition is not met, the legislation shall be retained in the committee that gave it the conditional do pass.
  4. "Favorable recommendation" if the majority looks favorably upon the resolution or memorial, resulting in its movement to the next ASNMSU Senate standing committee; or
  5. "Unfavorable recommendation" if the majority looks unfavorably upon the resolution or memorial, resulting in its movement to the next ASNMSU Senate standing committee; or
  6. "Approval" if the majority looks favorably upon the resolution or memorial, resulting in its final passage through the ASNMSU Senate. or
  7. "Unapproved" if the majority looks unfavorably upon the resolution or memorial, resulting in its death on the ASNMSU Senate Floor; or
  8. "Retain or Table" if the majority has voted to stop the movement of the legislation:
    - a. Legislation may only be untabled in the meeting it was originally tabled unless the ASNMSU Senate Committee of the Whole is considering it; and
    - b. Legislation may be tabled for lack of representation but may not be retained for reasons outside the scope of the ASNMSU Senate committee in which the legislation is currently under review; however, a report with recommended changes may be made.
  9. "Refer to committee" if the legislation is problematic outside of the scope of the current committee. The legislation does not move forward to the next meeting:
    - a. The same legislation can only be referred to once. Once referred and the committee has taken additional action, it must be sent to the next ASNMSU Senate meeting.

10. “Consider as a block” if an ASNMSU Senator believes the separate pieces of legislation should be considered as one singular piece of legislation:

a. There is no limit to how many pieces of legislation may be considered as a block.

6-11. STANDING COMMITTEES

- A. The ASNMSU Senate Rules Committee, Finance Committee, and Credentials and Archives Committee shall be the three ASNMSU Senate standing committees; and
- B. It shall be the duty of the ASNMSU Senate standing committees to perform the following faithfully and adequately:
  - 1. Hold regular meetings while the ASNMSU Senate is in session, once between each ASNMSU Senate meeting at a permanent time and location determined by the Chair; and
  - 2. Hold other meetings as announced in open session by the Chair or as announced by a notice to all ASNMSU Senate standing committees at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to the meeting.
- C. Every piece of legislation under the ASNMSU Senate consideration shall be sent to all ASNMSU Senate standing committees; and
- D. A quorum shall be fifty percent (50%) of the ASNMSU Senate committee membership plus one (1) member. No business shall be allowed to be conducted if a quorum is not established; and
- E. Any ASNMSU Senator whose name is on the byline for a piece of legislation shall be an author and may present it. ASNMSU Senators whose names are not on the byline are only able to present legislation if an ASNMSU Senator whose name is on the byline makes an amendment to add those ASNMSU Senators to the byline. Amendments must be made in person or by proxy:
  - 1. This excludes ASNMSU Senators who have graduated, been impeached, resigned, or were not re-elected. If this is the case, the following ASNMSU Senator on the byline can pick up that bill, resolution, or memorial and claim it as their own.
- F. Any ASNMSU Senator presenting legislation before an ASNMSU standing committee other than the one they serve on will present first if they have an NMSU class that conflicts with the meeting time. Any ASNMSU Senator presenting legislation with guests in attendance will present second. All other legislation shall be discussed in numerical order unless the ASNMSU Senate standing committee approves an order change.
- G. Committee meetings will be live-streamed, and the following guidelines will be followed:
  - 1. All meetings of the ASNMSU Senate Standing Committee will be live streamed to the public through an official online platform designated by the ASNMSU Senate; and
  - 2. The ASNMSU Public Relations Department shall give the ASNMSU Deputy Senate Clerk access to the latest online platform that is designated for the association; and

- a. The ASNMSU Deputy Senate Clerk is responsible for ensuring that the live stream is accessible to the public in real time and for maintaining the live stream throughout the duration of all committee meetings.
  - i. If the ASNMSU Deputy Senate Clerk is unable to attend a committee meeting, they shall notify the chair of the committee that the duties shall fall to the acting chair of the committee.
3. The content of the live stream will be archived and made available for public access on ASNMSU's official website or social media; and
4. Any device causing audio distraction will be removed from the premises; and
5. Any technical difficulties or interruptions during the live-streaming process will be promptly addressed, and the ASNMSU Public Relations Department will make reasonable efforts to notify the public of such issues and their resolution(s); and
6. The schedule for committee meetings and live-streaming dates will be regularly updated and communicated through official channels to keep the public informed.

6-11-1. RULES COMMITTEE

- A. The ASNMSU Senate Rules Committee is established to keep the rules of the ASNMSU Senate up to date and ensure all legislation abides by the ASNMSU bylaws; and
- B. The ASNMSU Senate Rules Committee shall have the following duties:
  1. Examine all legislation to determine its compliance and effect on the ASNMSU Law Book; and
  2. Review grammatical, spelling, and formatting errors on all legislation; and
  3. Ensure the introduced by and referred to dates are correct on all legislation; and
  4. Review minor grammatical, spelling, or formatting errors contained in the ASNMSU Law Book that the ASNMSU Attorney General identifies and, upon majority consent of the committee, allow the ASNMSU Attorney General to correct these changes should the correction of the errors not alter or confuse the legislative intent, meaning or application of the sections and statutes in which they are contained:
    - a. The Chair of the ASNMSU Senate Rules Committee shall give a report specifying the exact nature of the errors and of the corrections made at the ASNMSU Senate meeting immediately following the grant of consent; and
    - b. With a three-quarters (3/4) majority vote, the ASNMSU Senate may overturn a decision made by the ASNMSU Senate Rules Committee in regard to the ASNMSU Attorney General's recommended changes.

6-13. COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

- A. The ASNMSU Senate Committee of the Whole is established as the ASNMSU Senate standing committee for all ASNMSU Senate standing committees. A motion to dissolve into the ASNMSU Senate Committee of the Whole shall only be in order during ASNMSU Senate meetings and shall include the specific legislation to be debated in ASNMSU Senate Committee of the Whole; and
- B. The following rules are for when the ASNMSU Senate shall dissolve itself into ASNMSU Senate Committee of the Whole:
  1. The ASNMSU President Pro Tempore or their designee shall act as Chair and may not enter into debate nor vote except to break a tie; and
  2. The ASNMSU Rules of the Senate shall be observed in the ASNMSU Senate Committee of the Whole as far as they may be applicable; yeas and nays shall only be taken regarding the passage through the ASNMSU Senate Committee of the Whole; and
  3. Whenever the ASNMSU Senate Committee of the Whole is engaged in the investigation of any charge against any of its members, the ASNMSU Rules of the Senate will apply; and
  4. There shall be an agenda on which shall be entered all legislation and papers referred to the ASNMSU Senate Committee of the Whole; and
  5. Bills shall be considered as sections. If there are no objections from the floor to any section, the section stands as approved with a simple majority vote, but the ASNMSU Senate may reconsider any section upon dissolving out of ASNMSU Senate Committee of the Whole; and
  6. A motion that the committee rise and report progress on any bill shall always be decided without debate; and
  7. The ASNMSU Vice President shall be allowed to enter debate from the floor but may not vote therein; and
  8. A motion to un-retain a piece of legislation from an ASNMSU Senate standing committee and place it on the agenda of the ASNMSU Senate Committee of the Whole shall be in order; and

9. Each piece of legislation under debate of the ASNMSU Senate Committee of the Whole shall be given one of the recommendations as defined in Legislation Recommendations; and

10. The following motions are in order:

- a. Adjourn; and
- b. Appoint, authorize, or discharge committees; and
- c. Take a roll call vote; and
- d. Call for the previous question.

6-14. ORDER OF BUSINESS

The following shall be the order of business for ASNMSU Senate meetings:

- A. Roll call; and
- B. Reading and approval of the Journal; and
- C. Petitions and remonstrations; and
- D. Open Forum; and
- E. Reports of ASNMSU Senate standing committees; and
- F. College Council reports; and
- G. Reports from ASNMSU Senate appointments on ASNMSU Senate special committees; and
- H. Business on the President's desk; and
- I. First readings; and
- J. Second readings; and
- K. Legislation with guests in attendance; and
- L. Remaining legislation; and
- M. Unfinished business; and
- N. Adjourn.

6-14-1. EXCEPTIONS TO THE ORDER OF BUSINESS

- A. Messages from the ASNMSU President and the NMSU Faculty Senate, communications and reports from the University Administration, reports concerning enrolling and engrossing or revision of the Journal, motions to resolve into the ASNMSU Senate Committee of the Whole, and motions to rise and report progress shall be received at any time.

6-15. PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

The ASNMSU Senate Parliamentary Procedures are established to govern the proceedings of the ASNMSU Senate. For any regular or special meetings of the ASNMSU Senate, the following shall be in order:

- A. Legislation or other matter that is made a special order for a particular day and is not completed on that day shall retain its place on the agenda as a special order in the order in which it was considered unless otherwise directed; and
- B. No bylaw shall be passed except through legislation, and no legislation shall be altered or amended on its passage to change its original intent as defined by the ASNMSU Senate Rules Committee; and
- C. Whenever any bill or other matter is made a special order for a particular day, and it shall not be completed on that day unless otherwise ordered, it shall retain its place on the agenda as a special order in the order of business in which it was considered; and
- D. The enacting clause of all bills shall be: "BE IT ENACTED BY THE SENATE OF THE ASSOCIATED STUDENTS OF NEW MEXICO STATE UNIVERSITY"; and
- E. The subject of every bill shall be clearly expressed in its title, and no bill embracing more than one (1) subject shall be passed except general appropriation bills and bills for the codification, revision, or repeal of the bylaws. General appropriation bills shall embrace only appropriations for the expense of the executive, legislative, and judiciary departments. All ASNMSU organizations' funding requests shall be construed as executive department appropriations. All other appropriations shall be made by separate bills:
  - 1. Legislation considered as a block for the purpose of considering said block as one (1) total appropriation will be subject to section 6-15-U.
- F. No bylaw shall be revised or amended by reference to its title only. Each revised or amended section shall be set out in full, and each shall be set in a separate section of the amending act; and
- G. If any bill makes an appropriation, the fact shall be stated in the title; and
- H. An ASNMSU Senator presenting a paper shall endorse the same if it is a petition, memorial, or report to the ASNMSU Senate, with a brief statement of the subject of its contents, adding that ASNMSU Senator's name, or if it is a notice of resolution, with that ASNMSU Senator's name; or if it is a report of an ASNMSU Senate committee, a statement of such report with the name of the ASNMSU Senate committee and the ASNMSU Senator making the same; and
- I. Petitions, memorials, and other papers of similar nature shall lie on the table to be taken up in the order in which the same were presented unless the ASNMSU Senate shall direct otherwise; and

- J. When a committee shall report a bill, resolution, or memorial, such shall be open to adoption or rejection by the Senate. Adoption or rejection shall not limit the prerogative of the Committee of the Whole to debate the bill, resolution, or memorial as to substance; and
- K. Committee reports and committee amendments to a bill, resolution, or memorial shall be highlighted on the bill, resolution, or memorial on file; and
- L. The question on the final passage of every bill shall be by yeas and nays, which shall be entered into the Journal, and unless the bill receives the number of votes required by the ASNMSU Constitution to pass it, it shall be declared lost. If, on taking the final question on the bill, it shall appear that a constitutional quorum is not present or if the bill requires an extraordinary majority of all the ASNMSU Senators elected to pass it and it appears that such a number is not present, the bill shall retain its place on the calendar and be again taken up in its regular order; and
- M. Immediately after the passage of any bill, memorial, resolution, or any substitute for legislation, it shall be enrolled and engrossed by the ASNMSU Chief Senate Clerk and thereupon shall be signed by the ASNMSU Senate Presiding Officer, and the fact of such signing shall be entered in the Journal; and
- N. Resolutions must pass with a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the ASNMSU Senators present and voting, except for procedural resolutions, which shall require a simple majority vote of the ASNMSU Senators present and voting; and
- O. The ASNMSU Chief Senate Clerk is not required to prepare legislation presented to that office less than thirty (30) hours prior to a regularly scheduled meeting; and
- P. Upon resolution from the ASNMSU Senate Committee of the Whole, the Chair shall entertain a motion to adopt the entire ASNMSU Senate Committee of the Whole report. Upon approval of the ASNMSU Senate Committee of the Whole report, all legislation discussed will be entered into second readings; and
- Q. A motion or proposition requesting information from any office of the ASNMSU shall be in order at any time unless otherwise determined by a majority of the Senate, and when adopted, the ASNMSU Chief Senate Clerk shall cause the same to be forwarded immediately to the ASNMSU President; and
- R. On taking the yeas and nays during a roll call vote on the question, the names of the members shall be called alphabetically or reverse alphabetically at the discretion of the ASNMSU Chief Senate Clerk. In the event of a tie vote, the name of the President of the ASNMSU Senate shall be called last; and
- S. Substitutes may be offered at any time when a bill or resolution is open to amendment and, when adopted, shall take the place of the original bill or resolution and shall be open to amendment; and
- T. Any matter may be made the Special Order for any particular time or day by consent of a majority of the ASNMSU Senators elected; and
- U. Legislation considered as a block for the purpose of one (1) total appropriation can only be considered as a block in this manner according to the following guidelines:

1. If said legislation is for the purpose of competitive, conference, research, or presentation travel for the same recognized organization, any number of legislations may be considered as a block; and
  2. All other legislation considered as a block for the purposes of appropriation, defined as three (3) or more appropriations, will not be considered as one (1) total appropriation but, instead, will be considered as separate appropriations.
- V. Every report of an ASNMSU Senate committee upon a bill, which shall not be considered at the time of making the same or laid on the table by a vote of the ASNMSU Senate, shall stand upon the calendar with the bill and be entered upon the Journal; and
- W. A motion to un-table a piece of legislation from an ASNMSU Senate standing committee and place it on the agenda of the ASNMSU Senate Committee of the Whole shall be in order; and
- X. If an ASNMSU Senator is late entering the chambers and misses any roll call, a motion to allow will be required for them to enter the ASNMSU Senate chambers:
1. This motion is a privileged motion and takes precedence over the main motion, overall subsidiary, and incidental motions, and over all privileged motions except those to adjourn and to fix the time at which to adjourn; and
  2. It is a non-debatable and non-amendable; and
  3. It is out of order when another has the floor; and
  4. Requires a majority vote; and
  5. Cannot be reconsidered; and
  6. The general form of this motion shall be as follows: "I move to allow Senator (last name) onto the Senate floor".
- Y. The ASNMSU President Pro Tempore, having read the Journal for the previous meeting, will announce their approval thereof. Unless dissent is raised, the Journal will be approved. If dissent is raised, the Journal shall be approved following the parliamentary authority.

6-15-1. EXCEPTIONS TO THE ORDER OF BUSINESS

- A. When a bill or resolution has been on the floor for debate for one-half (1/2) hour, it is acceptable and in order, for any ASNMSU Senator to call previous questions:
1. When a new motion is created upon the main motion (a debatable secondary motion (Amend, Postpone Indefinitely, etc.), that motion may be debated for one-half (1/2) hour before the previous question may be called; and
  2. After a vote has been taken on the secondary motion, the time will resume on the bill or resolution being discussed.

- B. Previous questions may not be used in committees, in accordance with the latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order, except for the ASNMSU Senate Committee of the Whole; and
- C. If at any time during the sessions of the ASNMSU Senate, a question shall be raised by any ASNMSU Senator as to the presence of a quorum, the ASNMSU Senate Presiding Officer shall forthwith direct the ASNMSU Chief Senate Clerk to call the roll and shall announce the results; and
- D. A motion to "call a previous question" shall be followed by a roll call vote.

6-16. QUESTIONS OF ORDER

- A. Only persons who are members of the ASNMSU Senate, employees of the ASNMSU Senate, or representatives of the media having official duties directly connected with the business of the ASNMSU Senate shall be admitted to the floor of the ASNMSU Senate during any session, provided that:
  - 1. Any person may be admitted with the consent of the ASNMSU Senate; and
  - 2. The public address system is not present or is not in operation.
- B. If permission is denied to any member of the ASNMSU community to appear before the ASNMSU Senate, that person has the right to file a typed statement of one hundred (100) words or less with the ASNMSU Chief Senate Clerk, who shall place it in the Journal; and
- C. The use and control of all electronic and public address equipment installed in the ASNMSU Senate Chamber shall be under the exclusive control of the ASNMSU President Pro Tempore; and
- D. The ASNMSU Senate, by a majority vote, may exclude any representative of the media who abuses their privilege of admission to the ASNMSU Senate Chamber; and
- E. The ASNMSU Senate Rules Committee is designated as the committee to which a bill will be referred to determine whether the ASNMSU Senate can, under the ASNMSU Constitution, act on it. Such referrals shall be made only upon objection of any member that a bill is not germane, provided the sponsor of the bill may request, by motion, that the whole ASNMSU Senate determine the question of referral; and
- F. The Drafting Manual, as adopted by the ASNMSU Senate Rules Committee and subject to the approval of the ASNMSU Senate, shall be the standard authority as to the style and format of all legislation. Changes to the Drafting Manual shall be in the form of a procedural resolution.

6-17. VOTING PROCEDURE

- A. Voting during an ASNMSU Senate meeting will be done by a roll-call response, show of hands, or other voting measures at the discretion of the ASNMSU Vice President. All ASNMSU Senators present on the floor when a vote is called are obligated to vote in the affirmative or negative unless they have a conflict of interest concerning the motion, confirmation, or legislation being voted upon. If a roll-call vote is issued, the ASNMSU Chief Senate Clerk will call the name of each ASNMSU Senator present. When an ASNMSU Senator's name is called, they will respond in one of the following fashions:

1. “Yes” indicates a vote in favor of the motion, bill, or resolution; or
  2. “No” indicates a vote in the negative of the motion, bill, or resolution; or
  3. “Abstain” indicates an abstaining vote. An ASNMSU Senator maintains the right to abstain from voting concerning the motion, confirmation, or legislation to be voted on. An abstention will have the same effect as a negative vote in accordance with the latest edition of Robert’s Rules of Order; or
  4. “Pass” indicates a desire to vote after all other votes have been cast. Note that if an ASNMSU Senator passes on their voting position, they are still obligated to vote on the motion, confirmation, or legislation being considered; or
  5. “Recuse” indicates that an ASNMSU Senator wishes to recuse their vote. An ASNMSU Senator may recuse themselves from voting only if they have a conflict of interest concerning the motion, confirmation, or legislation to be voted on as defined by Appendix B-2-3-C:
    - a. An ASNMSU Senator who recuses their vote shall not be accounted for in quorum to determine a majority or supermajority for the duration of the vote; and
    - b. The President of the ASNMSU Senate will maintain the authority to determine whether a ASNMSU Senator’s recusal is in order.
- B. All Voting Records shall be kept by the ASNMSU Deputy Senate Clerk in electronic format; and
- C. Records will be made available within one (1) week after each ASNMSU Senate adjournment.

6-18. VIRTUAL MEETINGS ACT

- A. The ASNMSU Senate and Senate standing committees under it are authorized to meet virtually utilizing NMSU approved video conferencing application as deemed fit by the Chair of the ASNMSU Senate, with the below rules of order in addition to all other applicable rules in Chapter 6:
  1. To be recognized by the Chair, a member shall utilize a chat function using the letter “x” to be added to the speakers list, a “p” for a privileged motion, and a “2” to signify seconding a motion; and
  2. Any vote shall be taken as unanimous consent or a roll call vote; and
  3. Microphones shall be muted until recognized by the Chair. Any ASNMSU or community member viewing the meeting shall refrain from unmuting their mic or utilizing the chat and will be held as breaching decorum of the Senate if they do not; and
  4. If any member has any technical issues, another member can request through a point of privilege that the Chair stands the meeting at ease until their issue is deemed unfixable or is resolved. If a member has technical issues while holding the floor, the Chair will stand the meeting at ease, allowing their lost time to be reclaimed; and

5. All virtual meetings of the ASNMSU Senate shall be recorded and published online in a manner deemed plausible by the ASNMSU Chief Senate Clerk and the ASNMSU Executive Director of Public Relations.

6-19. INVALIDITY

If any portion of Chapter 6: Rules of The Senate is found invalid by the ASNMSU Supreme Court, ASNMSU Advisors, or the NMSU Vice President of Student Success, only that portion of Chapter 6 will be considered invalid.

6-20. AMENDMENTS

- A. The rules shall be in force from and after their adoption by the ASNMSU Senate and may be amended by a simple majority vote of the ASNMSU Senators elected at two (2) consecutive meetings and when such amendment is consistent with the constitutional provision; and
- B. The rules shall be in force from and after their adoption by the ASNMSU Senate and may be suspended by a three-fourths (3/4) majority vote of the ASNMSU Senators elected at two (2) consecutive meetings and when such suspension is consistent with the constitutional provision.
