24

The grammar from “time to time” is vague and can provide a very unclear operation system for the ASNMSU. With 25 this new timing, it will allow the President of the ASNMSU to set the goals and standards promptly. This change 26 will ensure clarity in communication, allowing for better understanding and implementation of objectives. It is 27 crucial to have a well-defined structure that enables effective leadership and accountability within any organization, 28 including student-wide transparency.
